Department of Recreation and Parks Policies & Procedures for Use of Facilities

Approved by Town Board 1/25/22

The Town of Beekman (hereafter referred to as the “The Town”) mission is to provide recreational opportunities which will encourage a healthy and active lifestyle. We strive to promote lifelong leisure skills and to enhance the quality of life and sense of community for all residents of the Town of Beekman.

In support of that mission, the Town seeks to enhance recreation for town residents by coordinating the use of fields and buildings, including several of the Arlington School District facilities.

D. Registration and Reservation Forms

1. For Organizations to reserve a Town of Beekman facility or field:

- Annually, or upon any change in leadership, an officer of the group must register the group with the Town of Beekman by completing and submitting the: “Organization Registration Form for Use of Facilities” along with a roster of all participants/members that includes full names, address of their residence (not a PO Box), their date of birth, and their grade in school
- The group must complete the “Town of Beekman Facility Rental Agreement”
- The group must complete any other related documents and submit fees

2. For Organizations to reserve Arlington Central School District Facilities:

- Annually, or upon any change in leadership, an officer of the group must register the group with the Town of Beekman by completing the: “Organization Registration Form for Use of Facilities”.
- Complete the ACSD “Use of Facilities Request Form”
- Complete “Rules Regarding Use of Facilities” form

3. For Organization Residency Discounts a full roster of all participants, including name and address is required; if current rosters are not yet established, a roster of prior year participants will be satisfactory and must be submitted with the “Organization Registration Form for Use of Facilities”

4. For non-profit status a document showing non-profit status 501(c) 3 is required

5. For individuals to reserve facilities complete the “Town of Beekman Facility Rental Agreement” and submit the related documents and fees

6. For individual resident rate: a photo ID and tax or utility bill to the individual reflecting their residence in the Town of Beekman

E. Considerations

1. Ranking: Upon evaluation of the registration information, the requestor’s organization will be ranked by the Town of Beekman Department of Recreation and Parks. Priorities include, in no specific order:

- Department programs
- Youth programs
- Programs for Town of Beekman residents
- Programs that increase the diversity of offerings
- Non-profit status

2. All requests for facility use will be reviewed to ascertain any past negative experiences with the organization requesting facility use including but not limited to:

- a. Damage or destruction of town or school property
- b. Lack of supervision and control of participants and/or spectators
- c. Excessive debris, trash, and insufficient clean up by the group
- d. Uncooperative with town or school staff

3. Staff will identify any athletic fields and other play surfaces that are deemed unsafe or in need of rehabilitation. These areas will be taken out of service for a designated period.

NOTE: The Community Center will be available Saturdays and Sundays from 10 am through midnight for rental functions when not being used by the Recreation Department and when Maintenance staff is available for cleaning.

NOTE: Higher ranking, may on rare occasions determine “bumping” rights in the event of schedule conflicts.

NOTE: Arlington School District priorities will be honored when requests are made for School Facilities. For more detail, see Arlington Central School District Regulations Regarding Public Use of Facilities 1500-R Public Use of School Facilities found on their website.

F. Insurance Requirements
